Delegates to National Conference Aiding Idle Intimate That Question Will Be Passed Back to the City

Oakland Mayor Disapproves Proposal, But Says Lack of Jobs Not Yet Acute: Alameda and Berkeley Help

The objections to the plan voiced by Mayor John L. Davis, we see in it an attempt to "pass the buck" to municipalities, and by certain labor organizations and other who believe that a federal program of highway improvements should

In Mexico and Alameda the local leadership is accepted, the only concern being directed at the possibility that the government do not intend to aid in substantial way.

A hint that some decisive action to be taken is seen in the fact the Secretary Hoover is preparing a message that is to be broadcasted to the mayors and governors of the country. Interviews with the mayors of the three largest Eastbay communities, with heads of employment bureaus, and others close to the street, would show that there is belief in this county that an action condition

The immediate reaction of Eastbay mayors, the General Conference of Workers in Oakland and a number of other organizations and individuals shows with what interest the national conference is being followed and the extent of local concern in the handling of the question.

To offset disappointment made evident when the conference announced that to the cities should fall most the load, is a statement reported to have been made by President Ha-

The conference today, despite from Washington said, was considering methods for the initiating emergency measures for the nation's involuntary idle. One participant played a message to all of the mayors and mayors of cities of more than 25,000, to ask immediately

"PASSING BUCK."
SAYS MAYOR DAVIE.
"The government is trying to pass the buck," Mayor Davie of Oakland said today. Particularizing, he continued:
"I am not prepared, naturally,
to state what action the city of Oakland will take. If the wire despatches are true, the government has thrown the problem back upon us. I have believed in watching this national uncertain conference with great interest, but I had no idea they were going to band it."

"There is no doubt that the unemployment problem is a grievous one from this government's standpoint, but I cannot say that it is going to happen in the matter now. I wait till the advices are received from the government."

The plan that municipalities could for their own problems of unemployment was anticipated by Berkeley two months ago, according to J. Kimball, secretary of Mayor J. Bartlett. At that time the council authorized the employment of all unemployed men at a wage of 10 cents a day.

MEN DAILY ARE GIVEN LIVING WAGE.

From five to twenty-five men are applied daily for this employment, the weed-cutting crew carrying out its work accordingly. While some have been found who refused to work for wages, allowing their families to go hungry instead, yet the plan was accepted by most of those who were in want of bread.

In a recent contest between the Commission and the farmers, this plan has proved the plan, together with the men and assistance of a local charity organization, to assist in the work of the commission. The commission is expected to be in the city for the next few days.

CONGREGATIONAL PASTORS TO OPEN SESSION OCT. 13

The sixty-fifth meeting of the Northern California Congregational Conference will be held at Asilomar, October 13 to 19, and is expected to bring out the largest number of congregational pastors and lay delegates in the history of the conference. Rev. Harley H. Gill, pastor of the First Church of Stockton, and moderator of the conference, will preside. Rev. W. A. Schwinmley of Calvary Congregational church, Oakland, is vice-moderator.

In arranging the program for the conference, every effort was made to provide discussion groups on every subject of interest to the church or its kindred organizations. Two conferences on religious education will be conducted by Miss Sarah E. Bundy, Young People's Expert for the Southern California Conference, and two conferences on the problems of the city will be led by Rev. Harvey V. Miller and participated in by Rev. Luman H. Royce, city expert of the Congregational Home Missionary Society, who is in California at this time studying conditions.

The problems of the country church will be considered in two conferences led by Rev. William H. Youngman and a full evening will be devoted to parish evangelism. Rev. J. L. Pagley, secretary of the National Commission on Evangelism, will lead the discussion. Domestic and foreign missionary work will be considered in study classes.

Other activities include National Council echoes, morning prayers, bedside fellowship services, Young People's programs, Camp Fire, Girls and Boy Scout meetings and the discussion and transaction of denominational business. Afternoons will be reserved for recreation.

Among those who will address the various sessions are: Revs. R. Van Horn of Oakland, James L. Gordon of San Francisco, R. B. Larkin, Benjamin Gould and T. T. Giffen.

Two Pastors to Speak Sunday on 'Hope of World'

Rev. J. Gordon McPherson, the "Black Billy Sunday," will preach tomorrow night in the First Baptist Church in connection with Rev. John Snape, pastor of the church. Rev. McPherson was recently made pastor of St. John's Institutional Baptist Church (colored) and will bring a number of his jubilee singers with him tomorrow evening.

There will be no evening service at St. John's church, but special daily services will be held there tomorrow morning. The juvenile chorus will sing at the morning devotional home, 11 o'clock, and the regular Sunday-school service will be held at 9:45 a. m. At 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon members and friends of the church will assemble at a special "silver dollar offering" service. The donations will be used toward establishing institutional features of the church, it is announced.

Church Ends Year In Good Condition

A resume of the year's activity, with reports on finances and expenses, followed by the outlining of plans for activity during the coming year, were features of a meeting of the official board of the First United Brethren church, held during the past week. The meeting was called by Rev. Milton C. Lutz, the pastor, who was returned to the pastorate of the church by action of the annual conference two weeks ago. According to the pastor, the church's finances are in good condition, current expenses have been met in full, and several new members have been received into the church.

Rev. Lutz will speak on "Angels and Their Ministry" tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock following the regular Sunday-school services which are held at 9:45. In the evening his subject will be "The Heart Unknowable." The three Endeavor societies will meet at the usual hours.

TRIBUNE WIRELESS TO CARRY SERMON ALL OVER COAST

At last the unusual has been achieved. Ministers may now sit at ease, and at the same time electrify thousands of listeners by the words that they speak on Sunday mornings. And to some minds the best part of it is that when the congregations become tired of the preaching they may leave the church without hurting the feelings of the pastor.

The tip to pastors is simply this: preach your sermons by wireless telephone.

Rev. H. A. Van Winkle, pastor of the First Christian church, will be the first minister to do this. Tomorrow morning he will be seated on the eighth floor of the Hotel Oakland and will talk into the transmitter of The TRIBUNE'S sending apparatus, operated by Preston D. Allen. His message will be transmitted by radio to his own church, where through a magnavox it will be heard distinctly by the hundreds of persons who attend the Sunday morning services. And in addition to that, the same message will be heard by thousands of persons in other churches through northern California in which magnavoxes have been installed.

Sailors on board the super-dread-nought California and other fighting craft have made preparations during the week to hear the sermon from magnavoxes, which are carried on nearly all of the fighting ships.

In choosing the sermon which, through The TRIBUNE'S wireless, will be transmitted to thousands, Van Winkle considered for some time before finally settling on "The More Excellent Way." It is a sermon that I hope will interest my listeners tomorrow morning," said Dr. Van Winkle yesterday. "It is not often that one gets a chance to reach such a large congregation, through such a marvelous appliance, and I certainly appreciate the opportunity."

Girls' Corner Club Is Formally Opened

More than 130 girls were present at the formal opening of the new headquarters of the Girls' Corner club, in I. O. O. F. hall, on the night of September 12. Tuesday evening meetings which are held every week for the members of the club are now being attended by girls from throughout the entire bay section, it is stated.

The club was organized following the John Brown evangelistic meeting by Mrs. Frances Neth. Its appeal is especially to the business girls of the community.

Healing Meetings Get Larger Edifice

Evangelistic and "healing" meetings which were carried on in Court Street B. church, Alameda, under the direction of Rev. John Edwin Andrews, assisted by Rev. J. W. ## Presbyterians Work to Have Bible Taught in Public School

Joint action of the various church denominations toward a decision in the Supreme Court of the United States to determine whether or not the Bible can be suppressed legally from public schools, is being urged at this time by leaders of the Presbyterian church in the United States. The action had its inception in the synd of Washington, and at the head of the movement is R. L. Edmonston, a Presbyterian layman of Spokane, Wash. Affiliated with him is W. A. Funk of Sunnyside, Rev. Eugene A. Walker of Spokane and Rev. T. D. Jackson of Chehalis, Wash.

The line of attack by which the churches hope to restore the teaching of the Bible in public schools throughout the United States will be based on the Declaration of Independence. It is stated. The Presbyterians claim that the declaration is a covenant between the American nation and God, and that the study of the Bible by American children is essential to an understanding of that covenant and to the full knowledge of God.

It is the contention of those who are leading the fight for the Presbyterians that to prohibit the teaching of the Bible is to violate one of the essential clauses of the opening paragraph of the Declaration of Independence.

In commenting upon the ruling of the attorney general of Washington and on the ruling of the State Supreme Court, to the effect that the Bible is a sectarian book, the Presbyterians declare that "this ruling opinion and construction is erroneous, and that the state constitutional provisions so constructed are void as being in conflict with and repugnant to the principles of the Declaration of Independence."

Rather than adopt strenuous measures as to single denomination, the Presbyterians are first perfecting a federated organization representing all denominations which is designed to establish the teaching of the Bible as a part of the education of the children. The organization requires the state to provide for and to obtain the opinion of the highest courts thereon, including the opinion of deliverance of the Supreme Court of the United States and also a plebiscite, it demands necessary.

UNITY CLUB WILL RESUME MEETINGS

The opening meeting of Unity club, after the usual vacation will be held next Wednesday, at 8 p. m. in Wendt hall. The members will continue the study of comparative religion. "The Religions of India" will be the subject of a series of lectures by Rev. Clarence Reed, given under the auspices of the club every Wednesday evening. The subject of the first lecture will be, "What We May Learn From India." The lecture will be illustrated by views of Indian life. The admission to these lectures is free and all persons interested in the study of comparative religion are invited to attend.

The subject of the sermon by Rev. Clarence Reed tomorrow at 11 a. m. will be, "Dead Hands in the Church." The text of the sermon will be the action of the annual convention of one of the largest denominations of America in voting to accept a donation of $1,500,000 to its Home Mission Society, given on condition that the money should be expended under strict orthodox creedal conditions.

Prof. S. E. Coleman is arousing much interest in the series of addresses that he is giving to the adult class, Sundays at 10 a. m., on "The Irrefragable Principle in Science, Religion and Health."

It is stated the regular monthly social, given under the auspices of the societies of the church, will be held Friday evening in Wendt hall. There will be music, dancing and cards.

The Reading club will have their first meeting after vacation Thursday at 2:30 p. m. The members will continue the reading and discussion of "The Outline of History," by H. G. Wells.

LEAGUE ALLIANCE PLANS ACTIVITIES

At the last executive meeting of the Alameda County Epworth League Alliance last Tuesday evening those present divided into departmental discussion groups conducted by the Alliance officers. George Liles, first vice-president, and his group had plans for the "Win-My-Chum" campaign, to begin in November, and for the general campaign of personal evangelism which will extend over the entire year.

The second department, led by Mary Buck, discussed the setting up of study classes, using the official study book for both home and foreign missions entitled, "John Wesley Jr."

Kenel Kennedy, leading the Third department, gave practical help on all phases of social service which Epworthians may do. An "Old Folks" day to be observed in October, is one of the plans.

Edward Johnson, Alliance fourth vice-president, gave his group plans for recreational activities. The Fourth department and First department will work together in the "Win-My-Chum" campaign.

The next executive session will be held October 18 at the Eighty-third Avenue Methodist church. It was voted to continue the departmental conferences at this meeting. A tentative invitation was extended by St. Paul's league to hold the November rally in their church.

FILM CELEBRITIES VISIT ARBUCKLE IN HIS L. A. MANSION

Accused Comedian Continues to Maintain Silence Regarding Charges.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—The policy of "nothing to say" which Eugene Ar buckle maintained at San Francisco while in jail following the death of Virginia Rapp, was being rigidly adhered to today by the comedian and members of his household in his West Adams street mansion.

One of the leading topics for speculation in Los Angeles today in connection with the "Patty" case, however, was the fact that no news of the comedian's whereabouts had been received since his departure from the city.

Ar buckle's arrival in Los Angeles has in fact caused a sharp division in the ranks of the movie people. Some favor him, others denounce him.

Meanwhile "Patty" is remaining in the seclusion of his West Adams street mansion. He was not alone, however. His friends, including his wife, Alice, and his daughter, formerly Natalie Tammage, "Slim" Sumner, and other film celebrities, were with him.

ROOZE INQUIRY PRESSED.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Robert H. McCormick, special assistant United States attorney general, declared today that as a result of evidence produced before the federal grand jury late yesterday, he proposed to prosecute Eugene Ar buckle for violation of the prohibition laws.

McCormick declared that he had located the parties who retailed the liquor to Ar buckle and they also would be prosecuted.

This was the chief development in Ar buckle's case here. District Attorney Matthew Brady and his assistants said they were preparing to take during the coming week the next steps toward bringing Ar buckle to trial.

NORTH IS IGNORED BY STORM; RAIN IS GENERAL IN SOUTH

Cloudy or Foggy Weather.
Gradually Clearing. Bay Prediction.

In the opinion of the Weather Bureau the bay region and the northern part of the State has been overlooked in the storm which yesterday caused a soaking of Southern California and adjacent Arizona. This morning reports showed the storm to be moving slowly eastward. The prediction is for continued rain in the south, for fair weather in the northern part of the State and cloudy or foggy weather about the bay gradually clearing.

CLOUDBURST IN SOUTH.

CLAYBURY, Oct. 1.—A cloudy burst in the Chocolate Mountains of the southeastern corner of California drenched a large section between Niland and Yuma, and made necessary diversion of several Southern Pacific main line trains over the Imperial-California line through Imperial Valley.

Torrents sweeping down ordinarily dry, bare, and rocky slopes, caused several washouts, which, however, were quickly repaired when the waters rapidly subsided.

RECORD IN SAN DIEGO.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 1.—A rain which broke all September records for 36 years in this city descended yesterday, the total at 5 p. m. being 1.16 inches. The nearest September rainfall recorded here was in September, 1899, when the total for the month was less than two-thirds of an inch. The local weather bureau predicted showers for tomorrow.

RAIN FALLING IN L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—Rain was falling here again today, continuing the precipitation which, beginning yesterday morning, amounted to .37 of an inch in Los Angeles at 5 o'clock this morning. Last year to the corresponding date the rainfall was .64.

Many Southern California points reported precipitations ranging from an inch to an inch and a half, while 1.75 was recorded at San Bernardino, more than two inches at Needles and more than three inches at Yuma, Ariz., according to data of the United States weather bureau. More rain was forecast.

Information received at the weather bureau indicated that no extensive damage had been done to crops and that none would result if the skies cleared by tomorrow.

FIRST RAIN OF SEASON.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 1.—First rain of the season fell here yesterday. Precipitation at various points included: San Bernardino, 1.10; Highland, .66; Rialto, 1.10; Colton, .33; Fontana, 1.52. The storm extends into the San Bernardino mountains and to sections north from there. Damage to the grape crop will depend on whether the storm clears today giving an opportunity for the moisture now clinging to the grapes to evaporate. The rain was a benefit to citrus fruit orchards.

ALAMEDA POLICE DON BLUE, WITH ONE EXCEPTION

ALAMEDA, Oct. 1.—Members of the Alameda police department went into their blue uniforms this morning with the exception of Grant Hicks. It was not because Grant did not possess such an article of raiment, but due to the fact that it was October first. To the uninitiated this means nothing, but to the friends of Hicks it means that he has beat it off to the duck ponds. For the opening of the duck season to come along without Hicks being on hand would, according to his brother officers, spell bad luck for Hicks all through the coming year.

Hicks has a large pond in the marshes to the south of Bay Farm island. In order to be present to greet the first delegation of quackers he left last night.

The blue uniforms which all the men of the force donned this morning is the regular winter uniform.

Bishop Nichols to Preach in Alameda

ALAMEDA, Oct. 1.—Bishop Ford Nichols of San Francisco will deliver the sermon at Christ Episcopal church, Sunday morning, according to an announcement issued from the church this morning. Bishop Nichols will take the pulpit in place of the Rev. H. H. Shires, at the 11 o'clock service.

EAGLES TO CELEBRATE.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 1.—The four-anniversary of the organization of the life and drum corps of Alameda Aeria of Eagles will be celebrated this evening in Eagles hall, Alameda avenue and Oak street. An interesting program followed by a dance has been prepared. Delegations of drummers from the other Eagles drum corps about the bay will be present.

MOTHERS TO ENTERTAIN.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 1.—The Washington School Mothers' club will entertain the young people of the district with a dance this evening in the auditorium of the school. Mrs. Lillian Finlay, president of the club, will head the receiving line as hostess.

PSYCHOLOGY MEETING.

The Eastbay center of applied psychology will hold a special healing service tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the blue room of Hotel Oakland. Mrs. Haydon Rochester will give a free public lecture on "The Psychology of Healing."

Only in Sunday's Edition of Oakland Tribune Will These Features Appear

Eagerly and hopefully the nations of Europe await President Harding's disarmament conference, and none more so than England, writes George N. Barnes, M. P. of London, to the SUNDAY TRIBUNE. Britain this year is spending in preparation for the next war a sum in excess of that in the year that brought the world to a close. In discussing the Japanese angle of the coming international conclave, Barnes wonders whether American labor is willing to lift its bars against orientals, in order to appease Japan.

Three of America's greatest labor groups must do their war-time jobs more sharply than has been done, to hasten prosperity, in the opinion of many of the delegates to President Harding's conference on employment. These, according to Harden Colfax, of Washington, are the coal miners, holders and railroad workers. Such cuts as have been made from the peak of high schedules are laugh too small, the conference believes.

Geneva, meeting place of the League of Nations is a modern land, cables William Bird, who explains that the variety of languages among the forty-odd nations represented is a great handicap to business. All of which, he states, illustrates the crying need of a common language and he suggests that the members "speak it with flowers."

Andre Tardieu, former French commissioner to the United States, furnishes an exclusive article on highly important developments in French politics.

Ralph Burton, of Washington, is authority for the statement that unrest within the ranks of organized labor, consequent upon unemployment is causing members and friends of the various unions a considerable degree of earnest concern. To support his declaration, he cites many examples of "inside trouble."

Strange political changes are taking place in Germany, writes Maximilian Harden from Berlin. The Social Democrat party, which changed the empire into a republic, wants to retain at all costs the power it has tasted and is seeking for a coalition with the so-called people's party, which, despite its name, is a capitalistic party, believing in a monarchy.

Stuart P. West, Wall street authority, writes an illuminating article on the nation's financial and industrial advances. He attributes trade growth to the fact that surplus stocks have been depleted and active buying, therefore, has been resumed, with a consequent strengthening of prices.

For the women tomorrow's paper will contain two articles of special interest. Betty Baxter has contributed an interesting summary of Washington society's doings, including the activity of the Hardings, and an outline of what is to be expected during the coming brilliant season at the nation's capital. In addition, Jessie Henderson devotes the greater part of "Seven Days in Lilliput New York" to the importance of the present day woman. Swinging elections, manning tube trains, aiding holdups, she says, the New York

RADIO CONCERT FOR BOY SCOUTS TO BE VARIED

Music Rendered in S. F. to Be Enjoyed Here by Use of Magnavox.

The program for the wireless concert of the Boy Scouts Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock was completed today with the addition of the name of Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco, who will make a five-minute speech.

Paul Steinhardt and his 60-piece orchestra will give the principal part of the program, with two solos. Elfreda Steinhardt, lyric soprano. The concert and Mayor Rolph's speech will be given at the Leo Meyerson station at the Fairmont hotel in San Francisco, and will be heard by a large crowd at Fifteenth street and Broadway, Oakland, in front of the Federal building.

The receiving apparatus here will be operated by Boy Scouts acting in conjunction with the Bay Counties Radio club. The mechanism at the Fairmont will be in charge of representatives of the Meyerson company, which has thrown open its facilities to the Scouts.

WILL BE HEARD HERE

Announcements in connection with the concert will begin by radio at 7:15. At 7:30 o'clock Steinhardt's 60-piece orchestra will open its first number. Mayor Rolph will speak at 7:45. Following the Steinhardt concert, the regular program of the Fairmont orchestra will begin, and this also will be picked up by the Boy Scout apparatus at the Federal building.

The program will therefore last an hour or more. The hour of 7:30 has been chosen by the Boy Scouts in order that those on the way to the theater may hear it. Many people are today arranging for position in the windows of the buildings which surround the scene of the concert, in order to be able to hear to the best advantage.

A magnavox will broadcast every note and every word so that everybody in the vicinity will be able to hear clearly. The receiving mechanism will be mounted on a truck with an aerial, and special equipment provided by the Electrical Construction company in conjunction with the Magnavox concern.

ONE OF MANY FEATURES.

The wireless demonstration is one of many features which will be given during Boy Scout week, which opens Monday. The concert will be given at the model camp, which will be maintained at Fifteenth and Broadway all week for Boy Scout demonstrations. From October 10 to 17 the organization will put on its drive for funds.

The program will be as follows: "Triumphal march from 'Aida,'" (Verdi); Steinhardt's University of California orchestra. "By the Waters of Minnetonka," by Leclair. Elfreda Steinhardt, lyric soprano. "My Hero," from "The Chocolate Soldier" (Strauss). Elfreda Steinhardt. Minuet from Beethoven, Steinhardt orchestra. Address by Mayor Rolph.

New Grimshaw Serial For Sunday Tribune

Another fiction treat is in store for the readers of the Sunday TRIBUNE Magazine.

"The Sorcerer's Stone," by Beatrice Grimshaw, is the new serial-a-week novel, which begins Sunday and winds up during the week following. It is a thrilling story of adventure, magic, bamboo sticks performing witchery and life-and-blood people.

"Nothing Else Matters" is a complete short story, one of the best ever written by Conrad Richter. It deals with railroads, hobos, Pocatello, Ida, men and girls.

Frank L. Packard's great story of the underworld, "From Now On," grows toward the big dramatic moments when heart and imagination are stirred in sympathy with the struggle of human beings and unalterable circumstance.

In addition there will be "The Bride of Mission San Jose," "Mystic Isles of the South Seas" and other interesting features.

The Oakland Sunday TRIBUNE magazine leads the west in newspaper fiction.

Loco Weed Smoking Declared State Menace

California's new and startling death menace—the poisonous marihuana—already has wrecked the lives of hundreds and threatens to engulf hundreds of thousands more, according to revelations made by George C. Henderson in next Sunday's TRIBUNE.

Southern California already is enmeshed in the net of "California opium," the loco weed, the deadly marihuana, which is being grown by the wagon-load and fed to Mexicans and Americans via the cigarette route. Haywagon loads of it are being confiscated.

Pool rooms and cigar stands are doing a tremendous business in the weed. Like the Indian hemp—hashish—it makes its victims insane and they run amok killing and destroying. Startling crime increases are traced to the loco weed.

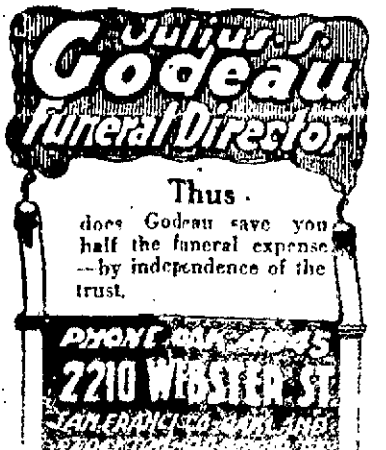

If you think the loco weed is a menace only to horses and cattle on the range, read "Loco Cigarettes," that Drive Men Mad" in next Sunday's TRIBUNE.

T. E. McGuire, Eastbay Pioneer, Passes

Thomas E. McGuire, California pioneer, and one of the oldest residents of Oakland, died this morning at his home, 847 Poplar street. He was 76 years old. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Ida M. McGuire, and two sisters, Mrs. T. Dyer and Mrs. Elizabeth McConnell.

McGuire crossed the plains with an ox team in 1852. He explored the gold country and finally located in Oakland. He took up his residence in West Oakland in 1872, where he has since lived. For many years he was connected with local railroad interests. McGuire was a charter member of Harbor Lodge of Odd Fellows, which he served as treasurer for several terms. When that lodge was consolidated with Oakland Lodge he became an active member of the latter group.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. at the family home.

HEILMAN AND TY COBB ARE NIP AND TUCK FOR BATTING HONORS

Roger Hornsby Making Strong Bid to Finish With Batting Average of Better Than .400

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—The champion batter of the American League may not be known until the last game of the season has been played this year. The race has settled down to a nip-and-tuck battle between Ty Cobb, pilot of the Detroit Tigers, and his hard-hitting outfielder, Harry Heilmann. "Babe" Ruth is the dark horse for premier honors.

The Detroit sluggers, tied a week ago, are separated by one point according to the averages released today. Heilmann is hitting .391, while his boss has a mark of .390, the former having participated in more games than the Georgia peach. Ruth is trailing the pair with an average of .380, a gain over his mark of a week ago of two points. Heilmann dropped three points, while Cobb lost four. George Sisler, the St. Louis star, retains fourth place with .373, while Tris Speaker, manager of the world's champions, is holding fifth place with .353, a loss of eight points.

Ruth cracked out two home runs since the last compilation of averages and now has a season's record of 35. He is far in the lead as a run getter, having counted 175 times while his 201 hits have given him a total of 448 bases. Besides his circuit drives, Babe has slugged out 44 doubles and 15 triples.

Sisler kept pace with S. Harris of Washington for the stolen base honors. Each added one to his string, but the St. Louis player is showing the way with 28 thefts, one in front of his rival.

Other leading batters for 100 or more games: Tobin, St. Louis, 352; Jacobson, St. Louis, 345; Williams, St. Louis, 345, E. Collins, Chicago, 339; Veach, Detroit, 336; Stunk, Chicago, 335.

Delehanthy Hlad Big Average in 1899

Rogers Hornsby of St. Louis is making a strong bid to be the first hitter to finish the National league season with an average above the .400 mark.

Since the days of Delebrant, who while with Philadelphia in 1890 topped the list with 409 hits, no player has hit 400 in the St. Louis star, who is hitting 406, maintains his pace, he will enter the record books with 400 hits with such men as Barnes, Chicago, who hit 401 in 1876; Pat Anson, Chicago, who hit 400 in 1886; Fred Clarke, of Pittsburgh, who averaged 409 in 1893, and Duffy, Boston, with a 438 in 1891. Jennings has 399 hits, with 128 runs and 369 bases. His hits include 20 homers, the latter mark being set by George Kelly of the New York Giants.

Frank Preston of the Giants ranked second with 397 hits, while Jennings has 396, with 124 runs and 367 bases.

Ed Roush of Cincinnati has made a good record in hitting and is trailing Hornsby with an average of .331, while McHenry of St. Louis and Cruise of Cleveland are tied with 349 hits and .329 average.

Leading batters 300 or more are James Fournier, St. Louis, .349; Michael, New York, .331; Fritch, Boston, .330; Johnson, Pittsburgh, .329; Johnson, Brooklyn, .324.

McHenry of Louisville appears to have a safe hold on the batting honors of the American association, hitting .350 with 390 hits and 114 homers with 495 bases acquired on

of the most able assistants John McGraw's help.

McGraw is so wise relinquished his job as manager but Hughes became manager of the New York club. "Big" McGraw and "Big" Hughes have been best friends at the Polo Grounds since McGraw took the job and Hughes took it differently. It was "Attie" Hughes' where before it had been McGraw's.

The good-natured Jennings soon became a favorite with the players and his fighting spirit.

Through many tough games Jennings has shown that he is a little gentleman and has proven a successful businessman.

JUN 15TH YEAR.

This is Jennings' fifteenth year as a leader. He won pennants in the American League in 1907, 1908 and 1909. He is not a stranger in the National League, having won the pennant in Baltimore, representing Philadelphia in the World Series first time in 1903. McGraw's on the famous old Orioles.

Jennings was born at Pittston, Pa. in 1876 and first played professional baseball with the Louisville club in 1897. The following year he came with the Louisville, Ky. club of the American association, where he played base and short. In 1894 he was

368, Art Butler of Kansas City with 365, and Benny Davis, another, dropped to Baltimore Nationals and four years later was shifted to the Brooklyn Nationals. In 1901 he became manager and captain of the Philadelphia Nationals and two years

393 and Stanley. Her, another Kansas City slugger, with 352.

Bunny Brief Has Made Two-score Home Runs.

Brief, who has made 40 home runs, has a wide margin over his nearest rival Red Russell, for the circuit drive honors, the Minneapolis player having smashed out 21. Brief also has the best run getter in the league, having scored 164 times.

Baird of Indianapolis is showing the way to the base strainers with 71 thefts.

Other leading batsmen for 100 or more games: Acosta, Louisville, 351; Reed, Kansas City, 346; Jay, Milwaukee, 339; Fisher, Minneapolis, 339; Schlinners, Indianapolis, 334; Galt, Detroit, 326. Galt has the highest of 47, while the world record for later returned to the Baltimore Eastern league club, playing second base and short out 1907 when he was drafted by Detroit. He was made manager and won the pennant the year. All of his Detroit teams were regarded as pennant contenders.

bits in a season, when he cracked out his 274th hit, as the curtain rang down on the Western league. The record was made last season by Miller of the Oakland club in the Pacific coast circuit. When the season is over, however, this mark was attained in 199 games, while the record established by the Omaha slugger was made in 166 games.

Lelivelt Is Wonder Of The Minor League.

Lelivelt was easily the best batter in the league and topped the hitters with 274 hits in 199 games.

Harper of Oklahoma City took second place with 333, while East of Omaha finished a good third with 285.

Australians and Californians Meet This Afternoon.

The four members of the Australian Davis Cup tennis team, Norman Peach, captain; James O. Anderson, C. J. C. Anderson, and William Ham Tilden, met the Californians' best this afternoon at the Berkeley Tennis club in a series of best-of-five matches. The members of the Antipodes have played sensational tennis since their arrival in America. In their first two matches, the entire quartet making their way high into the semi-finals, while J. O. Anderson tramped on William Tilden, the national singles champion, at Chicago in the East.

The international matches tomorrow will bring together John Wallace, Robert Patterson, and Pates, Morgan Petrell and

Just as he proved the best iron golfer, having recorded 128 runs and also finished on top in total bases with 418, a mark attained on 255 hits, Peck of Wichita was crowned the home-state champion of the league when he finished with 33.

Haney of Omaha won the stolen base honors with 18.

Other leading batters for 100 or more games: Metz, Oklahoma City, 250; Peck, Omaha, 250; Peck, Omaha, 250; Peck, Omaha, 250; Peck, Omaha, 250; Robertson, Joplin, 246; Query, Sioux City, 244.

Peck's skill against the invading forces of the league was met by only Anderson and Treadwell. He played here, with Peck and Todd leave, the league's best pitcher. He covered, but the four arrived yesterday afternoon and loosened up out of the league's best pitcher. He covered the matches today. Propagator to have predicted brilliant futures for the league's best pitcher and lawns.

The matches will begin at 1:30 o'clock.

The official route of the National A. A. U. cross country race, to be held on October 10, at Stockton, Cal., was mapped out last night at a meeting of the P. A. A. and the United Sportsmen Italiana, under whose auspices the race will be run. The P. A. A. is assisting the U. S. I. in formulating plans for the race, which will start at the headquarters of the United Sportsmen Club or at the P. A. A. offices.

The race will be run at Fourteenth avenue and Lake Street, once along the main drive through the Presidio, over the top of the golf links and will end at the corner of Broadway and Post, Exchange and Aviation, diagonally across aviation field to main road and down to the corner of Broadway, a wire fence north of the Palace of Fine Arts, diagonally across the fair grounds to the corner of the main road and along the main road to Van Ness avenue and Bay street, thence to Stockton street, turn to finish at the corner of Stockton, Stockton and Union streets.

The San Francisco Olympic Club held yesterday morning a cross country race. Clapp and L. R. Coffin tied for second place with a score of 84.

CAN'T HAVE TOO MANY GOLF COURSES-MAYOR JOHN L. DAVIE

KING FOOTBALL TAKES POSSESSION OF THE COUNTRY WITH MANY GAMES SCHEDULED

TWO MORE MUNICIPAL LINKS ARE PROPOSED FOR OAKLAND GOLFERS

Three Golf Links in Oakland Will Make City Leader in Amateur Sports.

By RALPH HOSLER

Three municipal golf courses for Oakland! In the event that the city constructs two other municipal golf courses in addition to the municipal links already under process of construction on 244½ acres of land near Lake Chabot, Oakland, will have done more toward the development of amateur sports and the health of its citizens than any other city in the United States, bar none.

Announcement made by Mayor John L. Davie to the effect that he is in favor of three municipal courses instead of the one already under contemplation, and that his investigations so far had resulted decidedly in favor of two additional courses, indicates that such plans will in all probability be carried out.

To date the mayor has investigated the marsh lands east of San Leandro bay and there found, according to his statements, that at a cost of practically nothing the city could construct a golf course second to none in the state. With a seawall built so that the waters of San Francisco Bay could overflow into the marshes at high tide, and with a small amount of dredging, a body of land suitable for an eighteen-hole course could be constructed at practically nothing, the mayor declared.

The second course that the mayor has been investigating is situated in Oakland and on the Bayview line. According to the mayor the land is located in easy-sloping hills, the contour is good and the water is not a factor in the property. The property comprises 37½ acres of land, which, the mayor says, has been offered to the city at an extremely low cost. Even if the city does not use the land for a golf course, the owner of the property will be a good investment.

It is the intention of the mayor to appoint a committee of Oakland business men, golf experts, and engineers to investigate the two proposed sites for additional golf links so that an official report can be made to the council.

Concerning the two extra courses Mayor Davie said:

"After noting the grip golf has secured on American men and women, I am now fully convinced that it will become one of the greatest amateur sports in America. In addition to that I am absolutely in favor of the development of the city's future citizens in the game of golf, and today, which has picked up golf as another of the many sports it now plays."

Mayor Davie Enthuses When Golf Is Mentioned.

"While Oakland's playgrounds are on a par with any other city in the United States, we have just realized that golf means the general public who cannot run about in tennis court, play basketball, baseball or any of the other sports. To them the game of golf is a recreation, exercise and amusement without much physical exertion. I am in favor of golf courses in Oakland and as soon as we can close for the Yargus property will be installed an investment for two more."

With three municipal golf links Oakland will outrun New York with only three courses; St. Louis with only two courses; Pittsburgh with only one course; and San Francisco with only one course. Philadelphia with only one course and Boston with only one course.

While it might be the belief of some people that three courses might be a drain on the city treasury, it is a fact that Oakland has more golf links than any other city in the United States. In all instances the municipal courses have more than paid for their upkeep, and have been a reliable source of revenue to the city and where the land was purchased from the city, the city has paid for the property within a short period of time. With the playing field, the locker and green fees, municipal golf courses under proper management will always be a paying proposition.

Stockton Again in Game for St. Mary's

With Houston Stockton, the big St. Mary's half back, again in molestation after being out of the game for a week, the St. Mary's college football team jumped all over the Stockton team last Saturday with Stanford at Palo Alto. Stockton is "Ship" Madigan's best backfield man. He can kick, punt and pass with equal ability. Just what man will leave the back field when practice is resumed next week is not known—except by Madigan, and he won't tell.

Coach Silva, the former high school coach, played a whole of a game in California, as did Kaubane, the Hawaiian flash. Black played a whole defensive game, but as a punting fullback his feet do not move fast enough. It is possible that Stockton will go in at full with Silva and Kaubane playing the halves.

Coach Gene Van Ghent's gang will be given a great battle when they meet St. Mary's, for the Broadway college team is 100 per cent different from last year—they play football and they fight.

Piedmont High Lines Up Fast Football Team

Coach Williams Has Good Material to Build Winning Team.

By JACK BURROUGHS.

Piedmont, Oct. 1.—An optimistic outlook for the athletic future of Piedmont high school, particularly with regard to football, was expressed today by Coach B. Williams. Although Piedmont has made the jump from what was practically a junior high school to a senior high school in a single year, Williams expressed himself so confident that the school will be represented, during the present year, in a complete year's program of sports, including football, basketball, baseball, swimming and track.

With no expectations of anything of a spectacular nature are entertained for the immediate future, Williams declared, is destined later on to take its place among the high schools of the state in the matter of athletic prowess. He added that that place would be somewhere out in front.

In this connection Williams stated that no players were being recruited, the students being alive to the realization that the path to athletic supremacy is no easy one. In discussing athletic possibilities in connection with the Piedmont high school's football squad, Williams characterized some of the players and aspirants as follows:

Phil Oliver, quarterback, has a knowledge of the game, is clever as an open runner and possesses the ability to direct play, coupled with a considerable amount of "football instinct." Will Cole is a fine defensive fullback. Clinton Frazierwood is a fast backfield man. Frank Perzi is a fast player, a sure, hard tackling, a good all-around game. Lester Stulzer is a good, fast man on interference, and possesses a splendid physical build. "Punch" has the work of a "punch" and is a willing worker, who displays plenty of football intelligence.

Owen Holte is snappy, and has a clear voice under all playing conditions. He weighs 150 pounds, but not hesitating to tackle the heaviest man on the opposition. "Booster" Pister is a sure tackler with an enormous amount of grit. He always comes up smiling. Al Hummel has a really good knowledge of the game, based on a few years of football playing, and does a great deal of work in the back field. Roland Koser has poise and the quality of cool headedness. Dick Grunbaum is a dogged fighter, regardless of which way the game goes, and is accomplishing much along the line of intellectual mastery of the details of the game.

Abraham Leach, a year's experience in the guard position and the end, Koser, comprise a pair of teammates who are well equipped to handle any situation.

Winifred Black
Writes about FOLKS AND THINGS

The distinguished professor took a strong dose of a certain Oriental drug the other day and as long as he held consciousness he took notes on the way he felt.

I was very much interested in these notes. They were so exact and so determined to stick to the actual facts, and not to give away for an instant to any sort of impulse or emotion.

"I feel exalted, ennobled, free,"

the chapter. "There is no sense of space or time or limitation of any sort. My impulse is quick, my inspiration—
And so the notes ended.

How strange and how beautiful! I must be to feel for just one moment as light as air, as free as the wind and as powerful as a roaring storm, if we have to take a drop to do that.

I wonder if it wouldn't be possible to cut the queer strings of habit which bind us to the humdrum of everyday life, and get somehow for just one instant that glorious sense

"THE FEARFUL IF"

I saw one the other day, little
And rough, rough, rasht, the was—
And he threw out his arms like wings
And crowed aloud in his triumph.
He had just discovered that I Didn't have to "stay put," like a chad-
or a table, or like his little wog-
dog or his little muslin cat.
How delighted he was—how Triumphant—how proud and how amazed!

I wonder if we grown-ups will ever
learn to cast off the queer lethargy
which holds us down and makes us

"If I should do this, that might be a little funny."

"If I should smile, I might have a laugh."

"If I should speak, I might have to make an acquaintance."

"I should intend that poor soul a dollar, I might have to give him ten."

"If I should tell my friend that I love her, I might have to invite him to spend a week with me."

"I should laugh at this fellow's jokes, he might write a play and come and read it to me."

"If it, if—what a tyrant you are! You little, cunning, fearful wretch!"

"You! I should have a shoulder and make me hold down my head and look at the ground, when I might be looking up into the blue sky and watching the apples ripen on the branch and listening to the robins singing in the maple."

"Hark, there's the brook on its way."

I wonder if it knows where it is going. I wonder if it worries about it all at all. I wonder if it thinks—

"If I turn here, I may lose my way and never get to the sea at all. If I sparkle too gayly in the sun and shine, I may have to pay for it in miles of darkling gloom."

MAN, ALONE, WORRIES.

And all the time, the broad river flows quietly and smoothly through the deep valley, and knows that a thousand little hurrying brooks will join it at exactly the right time and place, and the right place to the right of the right place, so that they can get down to the sea together in tranquility and the peace of great longing satisfied.

The trees—do they worry about

Is that what they're doing when they whisper and sigh in the wind? The wind—where is he going?—such a hurry and what will he do when he gets there?

How little we are—how small are we! How troubled—with a thousand little frets which really amount to nothing at all.

I'm going to take an hour and sit in the garden and let loose my mind, as if I can't feel it ennobled, ennobled, free"—without the doubtful aid of a powerful drug.

You have strength enough to open it."

"Aw, no, is that all I came for

"Oh, but, look, have you lost your eyesight—see that note in the corner?" I bet it's some information you'll be glad to get," cried Tim.

"Oh, it's another map, and it is the treasure is in the cave. Let's in."

"No, no, no, don't get so excited. We have to go and get our shovels." I broke mine digging over this bit of paper."

"I don't think you have to go back after the shovels," said Fred. "I've just been in the cave a round the bend is a mound. I brought curious, look at stick and here's a sample of what I found," and Fred exhibited a tarnished bit of gold.

The boys ran into the cave to see the treasure. The rest of the men followed them from the boat. found them. They had they got tired of waiting and came to see for themselves, they could get the treasure first. B. gee, weren't they a happy bunch. And weren't their daddies a mothers proud? I'll say!

AMPLE WORK POSSIBLE

Responding as early as possible to the injunction of President Harding to eschew fruitless talk about the causes of unemployment and to exert the maximum effort to find jobs for the jobless, the national conference on unemployment
just convened in Washington has amply presented some recommendations for amelioration
of conditions. These are simple in form and there should be no great difficulty in carrying them out
at least in part.

Early suggestions of the committee call for the resumption of work by industrial and manufacturing establishments, at least on part time,
wherever practicable; the doing of repair and alteration work by office building, hotel and
home owners during the coming winter months
instead of waiting for spring; the performance of the maximum amount of work possible by municipalities, and of as much construction as practicable of highways, public buildings and other works by State and county governments.

In the adoption of these recommendations the Pacific Coast States probably will take a leading part. Climate here permits continuous work throughout the winter months, unless there is interference from the greed of material dealers
for inordinate profits. Many projects of a public character are practicable in nearly every Pacific Coast city, for the high cost of building operations has prevented a lively resumption of work
since the end of the war.

In Oakland there is much that will be done
and much more that might be done this winter.
Dredging and filling on the western waterfront
and the construction of new streets to connect
present thoroughfares with the western shoreline of industrial sites probably will be proceeded as vigorously as public funds will permit.
Construction of a stretch of skyline boulevard is also planned, as is the dredging of Lake Merritt
and development of new land south of Twelfth street, the widening of Fourteenth street, and the extension of a street around Lake Merritt.
It will be possible also to begin the work of developing the new municipal golf course near Lake Chabot this fall, and if the obstructionists
in the Board of Education would change their tactics a considerable amount of new school building, for which bonds are available, could be done.

The county has provided for a considerable amount of new building at the new county hospital and at the home for the aged and indigent.
A project which should have been completed by
now, but which, due to the obstruction and shifting of position of the Southern Pacific Company,
has not been started, is a new bridge across the estuary between Oakland and Alameda. The War Department has ordered the removal of the present bridges over the estuary and if the railroad corporation would abandon its efforts to escape its plain obligation to join with the construction of a new bridge, work might be started within a few weeks.

Still another project is the erection of a new depot at Fourteenth and Franklin streets in Oakland, which the State Railroad Commission has ordered the Southern Pacific to build. This is a small matter, the cost being only about $50,000,
but it would add to the general sum of construction, both public and private, in the Eastbay
district.

As in Oakland, so in other cities where it is desired to shape activities to meet any problems of unemployment that may arise. Richmond in particular could begin work on a comprehensive water harbor project in cooperation with the Federal government.

This very cursory survey shows that there is no question about the Eastbay district being able to take care of its unemployed population willing to work if plans are promptly laid to meet the problem. Of course, if there should be a large migration of workers from other sections of the country, there might not be jobs for all. But so far as its own people is concerned, the Pacific Coast, and especially California, should be able to provide plenty of work for laborers willing to work and who are not interfered with by men

who prefer idleness to industry.

PROGRESS AND ITS DEMANDS.

Consolation for a modest desire for speed in revolutionizing the habits of the life of the world is found in an article in the current issue of The Nation's Business. It is a hint that in several places a "stop" signal might not do as much harm
as some of the single-track reformers and economists might believe.

"That added much to the Chinaman's skirt tail
which should make the cotton fields of Texas
white has so far moved more editorial pens than it has spindles in North Carolina," says The Nation's Business. "And now comes an eminent authority and shows us another side of the picture. This time it is R. Foster Bain, of the Bureau of Mines, who sets us wondering what will happen if the backward races backward,
that is, in habits and vacuum cleaners—ever
catch up."

China uses each year 100 pounds of coal per capita. We in the United States use six tons. If China's four hundred millions ever want six tons
each, China will need twice the coal the world produced in 1920. What then becomes of our coal reserves?

Or copper? Even highly developed France uses but four ounces of copper to the ton of steel to our six pounds. When the day comes that a telephone graces every Chinese home and each Chinaman clamors for his six pounds of copper a year, well, the world's production of copper for 1920 would just about supply China.

The world doesn't produce in a year enough
pig iron to give India alone her share if India
set out to use automobiles and cookstoves as in use in North America. And India will be able to get along passably well if the automobile never becomes popular. But one can see that too much precipitancy in these matters might upset things somewhat. Necessity is a wise judge most of the time and it has shown peoples everywhere
how to get along with what they have and can obtain. The unobtainable never killed anyone but an impractical dreamer.

COURTS ARE ADEQUATE.

San Francisco is entitled to a few days' respite
from the Arbuckle case and is doubtless pleased that the accused man, having been released on bail, has gone to Los Angeles for a visit. The affair of Arbuckle and the booze hounds connected with his case is sordid enough at best,
but there was palpably an attempt to make it as excruciating on the public nerve as possible.

When the accused returns for trial the better thought of San Francisco should insist that the district attorney make an effort to try the case in the courts, instead of in the newspapers and by public theatricals. This would be less contemptuous of the law and the judicial machinery that has been provided for the trial of law violators.

Tung murders continue and the police are continually on the anxious seat for fear that warfare among the Chinese residents of California
cities will break out any moment. Yet there is strangely no move on the part of officialdom
to have the federal government deport aliens
whose membership in murder societies has been abundantly proved.

"Gotham suffering from plague of fleas." If fleas constituted the only plague in New York
where would all the rest of the plagues be shunted?

NOT ADVISABLE.

There is pending in the House a bill, already passed,
we understand, by the Senate, to permit a judge in
any district to issue a warrant which shall run in any other district. Thus a United States Circuit Judge in California might reach out and arrest a man in Massachusetts and order his removal to California for trial.
It is the law, of course, that one who has committed a crime shall be tried in the district in which
he committed the crime. But it has also been common policy to provide safeguards against the removal of a prisoner from his home without due cause. In our opinion the proposed bill is a serious and unjustifiable
departure from that policy and should be defeated.

The bill is offered on the theory that it is desirable
to unify the Federal court administration and remove artificial barriers between districts. But this consideration weighs lightly as against substantial objections to the change which would place any citizen
more or less at the mercy of some far distant judge or prosecutor and deprive him of such protection from improper arrest or defensive action as he enjoys in his own community.

Under existing law the judge in the district of the indictment is required to send a copy of the indictment to the proper official in the district in which the defendant resides or may be found. The official thereupon is to cause a committing magistrate and determine if there is probable cause and if the indictment is good.
If the offense is bailable he fixes the bail. The defendant is entitled to introduce evidence that he did not commit the crime charged. He may attack the indictment as bad in substance. He may be heard on the question of bail.

There is something in the House a bill, already passed,
we understand, by the Senate, to permit a judge in
any district to issue a warrant which shall run in any
other district. Thus a United States Circuit Judge in California might reach out and arrest a man in Massachusetts and order his removal to California for trial.
It is the law, of course, that one who has committed a crime shall be tried in the district in which
he committed the crime. But it has also been common policy to provide safeguards against the removal of a
prisoner from his home without due cause. In our
opinion the proposed bill is a serious and unjustifiable
departure from that policy and should be defeated.

NOTES and COMMENT

Concerning Congressman Herrick,
public wonder will not now be centered on that fantastic individual so much as in the district that elected him to Congress. Detested individuals are to be met everywhere, but the constituency that elects one to high and responsible position ought to be wiser. There must be several thousand voters in every Congress-
man's district, and it takes a majority in each.

Success of an occurrence by the Alameda-Mark-Twain "Mr. Roosevelt" who the "funniest man in the world," threatened to throw Virginia Rippes, the best dressed girl
in the movies, out of the window of the best hotel in the west if she didn't stop that yelling. Everything happened in a twinkling to the girl,
at that particular time.

The fish question seems to have shaded off to a series of parables. If fishing will satisfy a really interesting to the troublemaker that elusivated the controversy which it was more active. To some war may be coming up to the parable, but is not necessarily fatal.

The bootlegging business has assumed such proportions that it is discussed abroad. Some of the abuses of the old-time saloon are attributed
to it, though it requires more
than bootlegging to succeed.
A report of a parliamentary committee describes the country as "the bootlegger's paradise."

The Watsonville Populonian notes
a trend of the times: "Handkerchiefs, suspenders, etc., and many other articles now have to be put up and sold in individual cartons and paper wrappers. Pretty soon you won't be able to dispose of firewood
unless it is done up in a paper box
with a pretty girl picture on it."

The situation in the oil fields has been taken account of by the large
responsible floating population
which is susceptible of instant mobilization and always goes as far as the sheriff's posse will permit, and
the undesired migration is setting
this way. The prospect foretells a busy winter for law officers.

The Ford-Newberry controversy will not subside. One thing that the majority and minority Senate reports agree on is that Henry Ford has not been elected Senator. That is undoubtedly the point that the chief contention is concerned about, but the agitation seems to keep up.

The Woodland Democrat sees another slum at the late lamented administration: "President Harding says that gradually the nation is working its way out of a welter of waste. Which is a very polite way of throwing another brick at the Wilson administration."

New York has formed its first broadway. The prediction has been made that there will be many broad-ways before the winter is over—that not since the winter of 1893-4 has
the prospect been so good for such undesirable formations. There seems more of a disposition to rely on it
now than was manifest then.

"Ice cream plant to be built at Chico." Nobody used to hear about ice cream plants. Much ice cream was frozen, but its manufacture was incidental and managed in cellars and by-places. Now ice cream is so much of a commodity that it has developed factories, taking the place, in a way, of the brewery.

THE WISE DUCKS

NEWEST NATIONAL CAPITAL

"If the United States, according to criticisms in 1921, selected a site for
its capital far from the beaten path,
the newly formed Federation of Central America has selected one that is even more remote and inaccessible,"
says a bulletin issued by the National Geographic Society.
"Tegucigalpa (a name which when properly pronounced brings to mind
the 'goosey-goosey-gander' of nursery rhymes) is now the capital of Honduras, one of the members of the new union," the bulletin continues.
"It might be termed the 'Llana of the West,' but not because it is a forbidden
city by the edict of man. Its citizens have their share of the hospitality for which Latin America is noted; but Nature has placed rough country between the city and the two oceans that bathe
the shores of Honduras, and man has done little to overcome the handicap.
It is the only capital on the North American continent that has never echoed to the more or less musical blast of a railroad locomotive, and one of the few railroadless capitals
in the Western Hemisphere. Nor may one yet travel to the new national capital by automobile.
"Tegucigalpa is some 30 miles inland from its Pacific port, San

THE FORUM

The Editor of THE TRIBUNE declines responsibility for opinions and statements expressed in this column. Brief contributions on current topics of general interest are welcome. They will not, as a rule, be printed unless accompanied by the name of the writer, which, if desired, will be withheld
from publication.

MR. LAVENSON'S LETTER.

Editor's Note: At a public meeting last Thursday the Publisher of THE TRIBUNE quoted from a letter from Mr. A. S. Lavenson, printed in THE TRIBUNE of September 9, 1920, the following paragraph:
"I do not believe, however, that
these savings would necessarily be returned to the taxpayer in the form of a lower tax rate."
Mr. Lavenson complains that a "savings" taken out of the middle of a letter does not convey the meaning of the writer, and requests that his whole letter of September 7, 1920, be quoted.
THE TRIBUNE takes pleasure in reprinting that letter in its entirety.

To the Editor of The Tribune:
In the necessarily condensed
newspaper reports of public meetings,
one's remarks are susceptible of mis-
construction by reason of the incompleteness of the accounts which report those not present at the meeting.

I trust, therefore, that you will permit me to make clear the position
taken by me at the meeting of the Charter League held last Thursday evening in the City Council chamber.
I pointed out at that time, in my judgment, an appreciable saving
could be made by combining the purchases of supplies and materials used by the county and the different municipalities within it, and also by eliminating much of the administrative expenses where there is overlapping of the county and municipal government.

I do not believe, however, that
these savings would necessarily be returned to the taxpayer in the form
of a lower tax rate.
I believe they should go toward permanent improvements which it has invariably been necessary to cut
out of the budget in recent years,
because of the excessive overhead expense of government. It would be better to maintain our present rate
and keep up the standard of our public schools, develop our waterfront and take care of other vital needs than to reduce our income to the point where it covers only the going expenses of government and no
public betterments.

When we are doing all that sound judgment indicates should be done to promote our industrial and general growth it will be good to attempt a reduction in the tax rate.
Since there is always an element of conjecture and of skepticism in the consideration of a reduction in public expenditures, I want to qualify this quotation from my remarks: "For the sake of argument, I will omit any reference to the matter of savings in the cost of government. A big enough purpose is the establishment of a form of Federated Government adapted to the handling of our two vital public utilities, water supply and transportation. It has been demonstrated that the people do not want a Public Utility District. There is only one other way in which these matters can be handled by all of the people and communities served."

It is to be hoped that freeholders
will be induced to realize the importance of working out a charter which will give every community in the county the fullest measure of independence and self-government and
at the same time develop the fullest power when united for the common good and to solve our common problems. A. S. LAVENSON.

About YOUR HEALTH

What Proper Elimination Means to Your Well

By ROYAL S. COPELAND,
Commissioner of Health, N. Y. City.

Good health depends on the uninterrupted secretion of all the
of the body and of their uninterrupted drainage from the body.

The suppression of any one
these necessary secretions is followed by a series of unpleasant symptoms.
They may not be noted immediately, but very soon they appear to torment
the victim.

Interference with the escape
of certain body wastes results in unpleasant frontal and nasal secretions
relieved, will end in death.

A notable example of the seriousness of a difficulty of this sort is the cat effects following suppression of the urine.

There is a lesser degree of trouble
in the case of a material reduction in the quantity of urine passed. Such a condition is hardly to be called a disease, but it is one of the symptoms
of several diseases.

There are conditions, too, where
the quantity of urine may not be abnormal, but where the normal ingredients of the urine are absent.
This means, of course, that substances are retained in the body which should be eliminated. They may not be poisonous, more or less serious in three degrees, according to the nature
and quantity of the retained substances.

Decrease in the flow of urine is associated with low blood-pressure.
Anything that reduces the blood
pressure—for instance, heart disease—may show itself this way.
Weakness in the heart's action,
whether due to trouble in the heart
itself or to general illness, will show
a decrease in the amount of urine.
When the skin is overactive, the kidneys have less to do in hot weather, or on taking a lot of unaccustomed exercise, the skin may carry away fluid which would otherwise be eliminated as urine. Under these conditions, then, the urinary secretion will be decreased.

In long-continued fevers, like typhoid, there will be less urine. Here
there may be a doubled reason—
weakness of the heart and evaporation of fluid from the skin.

In inflammation of the kidneys
there may be such swelling or thickening of the tissues as to interfere with the passage of fluid. There is actually mechanical obstruction preventing free flow. This is also the case where there is a stone in the kidney.

In dysentery, or cholera, where there is an escape of quantities of fluid through the bowel, the urinary flow is likely to be decreased.
In various nervous conditions, such as hysteria and epilepsy, disappearance or decrease of the secretion is observed. Certain diseases of the liver
have this symptom.

A temporary decrease in urination may be due to a delayed reason—
persons seem to possess this symptom as a natural condition. It is overlooked in them. On general colds, however, low kidney action or the continued absence of urine quantities of substance inmally found in urine, should be an investigation of the reasons for
it. Adding more drinking water
the usual intake may correct the condition. If it does not, consult a family doctor.

THE PUBLIC'S INVENTION
The wall of an Italian and Paris have been discussing an old,
old question of "wallers."
The wallers, of course

payment of "a living wage," kn-
full well, for the waiter, better
most men, knows human nature
the tip will still inevitably be a thereto. The Times, discussing question, says, "The abolition of whole matter is in the hands of public." Of course it is. And public, who invented the system
sits upon maintaining it. Why

JUST FOLKS: By EDGAR A. GUEST

PERIAPS
Seems like I'll never kick again
When days get hot, an' overhead
There's not a cloud to herald rain.
If soon the poppies blossom red
An' grass an' grain begin to grow
An' Nature takes on milder ways,
I'll think about this winter's snow
An' let the old sun burn and blaze.

I'm over fed on ice and snow,
Of wintry blasts I've had my fill,
I long to see the winter go,
And nightly pray that soon it will,
And if perchance the summer brings
Us blistering days that scar and burn,
I'll voice in all my murmurings
No wish for winter to return.

It may be I shall grumble then
When I am sweltering with the heat,
And say that it's too hot to eat;
Perhaps I shall forget just how
I've suffered all this winter long,
But still the way I feel just now
The sun will never get too strong.

AN OLD STORY.

They have discovered that bolshevism isn't a new complaint at all.
In China, which has the oldest civilization of any nation with a continuity
of history back of it, they tried out
that foolishness in the third century,
and again in the eleventh century.
It didn't work, and the best thought of Chinese statesmen is that China's mass of Mongols learned the lesson well, and that as far as China
is concerned there is no danger of the menace breaking out again—not for some centuries to come, at any rate.—East St. Louis Journal

HUSBAND OF DYING WOMAN SOUGHT HERE

Herman Lund, Reputed Railway Man, Needed to Establish Relations of Injured With Man Held As Assailant

Herman Lund, said to be a railroad man of Oakland, is today sought by the police as the husband of Mrs. Paul Taber, 20, who is in a dying condition at St. Vincent's hospital in Los Angeles. She was found early yesterday morning in the street with a fractured skull and crushed chest.

The police are likewise seeking the girl's father, believed to be somewhere in Los Angeles, and her three-year-old child. Both the father and husband are wanted by the police to help establish the woman's relationship to a man now in jail charged with attempting to murder her. The prisoner gave his name as Charles Lopez, 23 years old.

FOUND ON STREET.
Mrs. Taber was found early yesterday morning on Glendale boulevard, near Bellevue, Los Angeles. Besides a basal skull fracture and a broken jaw, which might have been made by a blow which knocked her from an automobile in which she was riding, the police say, her chest is crushed and several ribs are broken. She is suffering severe internal injuries, physicians say, from which it is feared she will not recover.

Lopez, the suspect, according to the police, threw Mrs. Taber from his car after having attempted to attack her. It is believed by the police that after she was thrown from the car an automobile struck her. The police are also seeking occupants of another automobile said to have been near the scene at the time.

BOOZE AT PARTY.

Lopez, Mrs. Taber and John Bergeroff, 218 Maple avenue, went on Wednesday night to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dwyer, 449 North Virgil street, to attend a party. Liquor was served, according to the police, who have investigated. Late in the night Lopez offered to take the guests home. With Mrs. Taber he took Bergeroff to the Western Union office, where he is employed, and then started for the home of Mrs. Paul Strong on South Figueroa street, where Mrs. Taber has been stopping. The girl was found lying on the street shortly after 2 o'clock the morning and rushed to a hospital.

The police are also investigating reports that Mrs. Taber has been married and never divorced, believing that this angle may have something to do with the attempted murder, if it was such.

Cow May Be Taken Into Berkeley Court

BERKELEY, Oct. 1.—A cow may be brought into the court of Justice Robert Edgar of this city to be used as evidence in the case of H. J. Renkel, 1560 Chestnut street, who is accused of cruelty to animals by neglecting his milk producer.

Renkel pleaded not guilty to the count this morning, and his trial was set for October 3. He said that he is prepared to show that his cow is naturally thin and is not undernourished, as claimed by Merritt A. Lutz, 1542 Virginia street, who preferred the charge.

The complainant alleges that not only did Renkel neglect to properly feed the animal, but that the owner left the cow exposed to the elements in all seasons of the year.

Charles Raabe, 1223 Fifty-third street, who is alleged to have left a note saying that he was going to end his life, reported to the police last night that he had been held up at San Pablo avenue and Chestnut street. He told the police that he had been struck by an automobile, which failed to stop and offer assistance. Two men, he says, picked him up and carried him to the sidewalk. According to his statement, one of the men went through his pockets and took $7.

The police started to search for Raabe when he was reported missing by his son-in-law, J. H. Tubbs. Raabe's wife received a letter, which he said to have been written by her husband, in which he said that he was going to kill himself. The police advised Raabe to go home to his family.

College Students to Give First Assembly

BERKELEY, Oct. 1.—All of the available space on the campus will be turned into dance floors tonight, when the first of the welfare committee's assembly dances will be held.

FLYER SEEKS COAST MARK FOR ALTITUDE

William R. Davis, Jr., Will Go After Record Tomorrow in Making Test With His One-Man, Single-Engine Plane

William R. Davis, Jr., of the Allied Flyers' Club, tomorrow afternoon will try for a new Pacific Coast altitude record for a one-man, single-engine airplane on the west shore of Alameda under the auspices of the club. The club officers at the same time will conduct, under special authorization, tests in which Davis will seek to qualify for the Aero Club of America hydro-airplane pilot license.

Davis hopes to smash the present 3600 feet altitude record by reaching the 12,000-foot "ceiling" of his H-1 Standard seaplane. The landing for his ship was computed according to the formula of the famous Pomilio. He will carry with him a registering barograph, specially calibrated by Dr. Jones, ex-captain in the gunnery division of the air service.

Davis' helpers, who have spent 3000 hours on his ship in the last year and a half, include Philip Dexter, ex-engineer in the engineering division of the navy; R. B. Stewart of the Allied Flyers; Frank Stevenson, also a member of the club, and Thomas Edwards, Robert McCulloch, Hugo Methman and Jack Crowe, University of California students and a dozen others interested in aviation.

Requirements for the hydro-airplane pilot license include flying five "figure eights" around markers 500 meters apart, with the landing within 50 meters of a previously designated spot, and an altitude and duration flight of not less than one hour at a minimum altitude of 2000 meters, with landing with shut-off motor within 150 meters of a designated spot. Davis will try for his altitude record during the test.

Armenian Soprano to Sing in First Church

ALAMEDA.—Marie Bashian, Armenian soprano, will sing at the First Congregational church of this city, tomorrow night. The prima donna, who is from Constantinople, is to give a concert at the Greek theater, Berkeley, in connection with her visit to the Pacific coast. She will sing in the First Congregational church in Oakland tomorrow morning, and in the evening will be heard at the Alameda church. Her husband is a Congregational minister in New York city.

Marie Bashian was born in Constantinople, is a college graduate and has studied under Variable, one of the great musical authorities of the Near East, and under prominent French and American masters.

Bogus Frat Men Run Up Big Taxi Bill

BERKELEY, Oct. 1.—Members of the Sigma Nu fraternity are in a predicament, and Walter Johnson, taxi driver of Oakland, is out a "flat" bill for auto hire as the result of the rise of two young men early this morning.

The men who represented themselves as college students entered the taxi at Twelfth and Broadway, Oakland. They traveled about for several hours, and then gave orders to be driven "home."

Johnson waited around for about an hour after the two men had entered the Sigma Nu fraternity at Panzer street and Cedar avenue. They were to have returned with money to meet the bill, which was to have been borrowed from a friend.

Later the police were notified. No one at the fraternity knew the two students. It is believed the men went through the front door and out the rear entrance and over a rear fence.

CUTTER MODOC IS LAUNCHED BY UNION COMPANY

The coast guard cutter Modoc was launched today at noon from the ways of the Union Construction company at the foot of Fourth street.

Leonard of San Francisco acted as sponsor. The Modoc is the last of four coast guard cutters constructed by the Union Construction company since the war, at a cost of $750,000 each. Three of the vessels have already been launched.

The Tampa, the first to be completed, will soon make her maiden voyage to the Atlantic, where she will be placed in the coast guard service. The vessels carry three 5-inch guns and several three pounders. They are 240 feet in length and are electrically driven.

Several hundred guests of the company attended the launching, after which luncheon was served at the cafeteria in the yards.

The launching of the Modoc practically completes the construction program of the company.

SEVEN HELD UP AND ONE VICTIM SHOT

Frank Crowell, 1798 Francisco street, Berkeley, was dangerously wounded at midnight last night when he was shot by one of two armed bandits who held up a soft drink parlor at Forty-first and San Pablo avenue and held seven men, including the proprietor of the place, Joe Adams.

Four patrons of the place were playing cards in a back room and the others, including Adams, were sitting talking at the bar when the door was thrown open and two men entered the place with drawn revolvers. Those at the bar were ordered to march to the rear room where the seven men were lined up against the wall. One of the men covered them with his revolver while his companion ransacked their pockets, securing more than $100. He then took $25 from the cash drawer. They were about to leave the place when one of the men suddenly fired at Crowell, who fell with a bullet in his abdomen.

"That's what you get for trying to draw a gun," said the bandit, as the two men withdrew hurriedly from the place.

Passersby who heard the shot and saw the two men run from the place called the police, who rushed the wounded man to the Emergency hospital while a posse scoured the neighborhood for the hold-up men.

According to Crowell he did not attempt to draw a gun. He was not armed, he said, and if he made a false move it was not with the intention of showing resistance.

The men were described to the police as of medium height and about 25 or 30 years old. One wore a raincoat and the other an overcoat.

Irish Comedy To Be Given in Wheeler Hall

MRS. FAY MCGILLICUDDY, Berkeley matron, who will make debut with college players tonight.

BERKELEY, Oct. 1.—With "General John Regan," Irish comedy by G. A. Birmingham, as the initial offering, the fall dramatic season at the University will be opened tonight in Wheeler Hall.

Three performances of the comedy are announced by Samuel J. Hume and Irving Pichel, directors of the Wheeler Hall productions. Besides tonight's performance, the play will be given Friday and Saturday evenings of next week.

The cast will be as follows: Horace

OAKLAND WILD
DUCK PAGEANT
MAY BE FIESTAC. of C. Committee Planning
Pretty Feature for Yearly Lake Event.

Oakland's annual wild duck pageant may develop into a great New Year's day fiesta under plans to be considered by a sub-committee of the publicity committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce. Among the suggestions submitted as added attractions to the pageant are:

A parade of "animated flowers." A water carnival on Lake Merritt. An automobile illumination of the lake at night.

The sub-committee, consisting of Louis Aber, general chairman; Supervisor Charles W. Hayer, O. D. Jacoby, Oliver Kehnlein, R. M. Miller, E. T. Minney, James Warrack and C. H. Wood, will be called to meet in a few days and consider the various suggestions. This sub-committee was appointed at a meeting of the main committee late yesterday evening. The committee definitely decided on New Year's day as the date for the duck pageant.

The parade of "animated flowers" contemplates having the school children give a procession through Lakeside park in costumes composed of the flowers in bloom on New Year's day.

Following the duck pageant and the "animated flowers" parade, it is suggested that a regatta of decorated boats be held on the lake.

At night, it is the idea of some that all the automobiles in Oakland be massed around Lake Merritt, with their headlights centered on the water so as to give it a unique illumination. An effort will be made to take night photographs of this feature.

"Are You a Moose?" to Be Given
By Local Lodge for Benefit

ESTELLE WARFIELD, who will play one of the principal parts in the play, "Are You a Moose?" to be presented at the auditorium under the auspices of the local Moose Lodge for the benefit of the furnishing fund for the new clubhouse.

"Are You a Moose?" a play produced by a company under the direction of Rupert Drum, former director of Bessie Barriscale and other actresses, will be presented under the auspices of the Oakland Lodge of Moose, at the Auditorium theater, next Tuesday night, for the benefit of the furnishing fund for the lodge's new club house.

Rehearsals for the play have been conducted at frequent intervals, and all preparations for the production have been completed. The cast will include a number of the most prominent men in the city who are members of the Oakland lodge.

Oklahoma Bankers
Tour Eastbay Cities

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—One of the largest contingents of bankers to pass through San Francisco yesterday en route to the forty-seventh annual convention of the American Bankers' Association, which opens Monday in Los Angeles, was that of the Oklahoma banking fraternity, consisting of nearly 100 persons. The Oklahomans were met by a reception committee composed of local bankers and were taken on a tour of the bay cities. A large number of the delegation left last night by boat for the southern city and the remainder left today by special train.

RESINOL

Soothing and Healing
For Skin and Scalp TroublesSCHOOL FACILITIES
TO BE ENLARGED
WITHOUT DELAYWork in Progress on Sixteen Buildings and Nine Are Reported Completed.

It is announced that during the present term the school department will make additions, repairs and improvements to school properties in all sections of the city.

"The purpose of school construction is to accommodate all the children of all the people in all the sections of the city," say the educators, "and therefore additional rooms have been added in many districts, with shops, auditoriums and gymnasiums. School enrollment has increased in all quarters. Therefore the policy of expansion in any one quarter means comparatively worse conditions elsewhere. The steps already taken insure that the burden of teaching crowded schools is already being eased."

Work has been completed and accepted on nine schools already, and progress is reported from sixteen other jobs.

Stonehurst, Webster, Rockridge and Peralta schools are entirely new, having been started in the past school year. Work is now in progress at the following schools:

Prescott, Melrose, Stonehurst, Dewey, Fremont, Lazard, Hawthorne, Highland, Webster, Lockwood and Oakland Technical high school.

The last financial statement of the department shows an expenditure of $315,514.32 for buildings' contracts. This applies to finished jobs and to projects still under way.

Relief Club Seeks
Nursery Furniture

Baby buggies, go-carts, pictures, chairs, cribs—all kinds of nursery furniture—these are the articles which the Ladies' Relief Society are seeking for their children's home.

If the gifts have been used and do not matter so long as they may be used again. In attics and cellars there are cherished left overs from childhood which would contribute untold joy to the tiny inmates of the Forty-fifth street institution, where between 70 and 80 kiddies will find their winter home.

The Children's building is being renovated by the board of directors, of which Miss Mattie Brown is president. They appeal to the public to contribute to the furniture and fittings, which will afford a home-like atmosphere. Anything that may be spared or has been thrown in the family nursery will be appreciated.

Gifts may be made at the Ladies' Home, 355 Forty-fifth street. Visitors are welcome at all times.

Raising Chickens
To Be Expert's Topic

"How to raise chickens on small holdings at a profit" will be the topic discussed by James L. Dinwiddie, Petaluma poultry expert, who will be the principal speaker at two open air meetings in the Leona Heights auditorium, Sunday, at 11 a. m. and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Dinwiddie is nationally known as the foremost exponent of the Hogan system of selecting hens. He was a coworker with Hogan and edited the handbook on the Hogan system. Following Hogan's death he took over his work of showing poultry raisers of the nation how to make "300-egg hens" an actuality.

Besides explaining briefly in his lectures the principles of the Hogan system of selection and care of hens, Dinwiddie will go fully into the details of poultry husbandry at a profit on the rear of fifty-foot lots and on fractions of acres.

Hundred Per Cent
Club to Get Charter

S. J. Carter, director of the One Hundred Per Cent club of Seattle, was guest of the One Hundred Per Cent club of Oakland at the local club's weekly luncheon at the Hotel Oakland yesterday. Carter spoke on the benefits to be derived from increased membership.

The local club will receive its charter from the International One Hundred Per Cent club at next Tuesday's meeting, it was announced.

JOY BROUGHT INTO HOME

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Restoring Mrs. Benz to Health

Altoona, Pa.—"I am writing to tell you what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. We have had six children die almost at birth. From one hour to nineteen days is all they have lived. As I was going to have another, I took a dozen bottles of your Vegetable Compound and I can say that it is the greatest medicine on earth, for this baby is now four months old and a healthier baby you would not want. I am sending you a picture of her. Everybody says, 'That is a very healthy looking baby.' You have my consent to show this letter."—Mrs. C. W. BENZ, 131 3rd Ave., Altoona, Pa.

No woman can realize the joy and happiness this healthy baby brought into the home of Mrs. Benz, unless they have had a like experience.

Every woman who suffers from any ailments peculiar to her sex, as indicated by backaches, headaches, bearing-down pains, irregularities, nervousness and "the blues" should not rest until they have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

SOCIETY WOMAN
IS MAKING BLACK
CATS TO AID FUNDMills College Endowment to
Be Boosted by the Sale of Chubby Kittens.

Mrs. Thomas Mitchell Potter, Piedmont society woman and club leader, has gone into business. She is manufacturing black cats, attractive life size felines made from veteran hosiery, with staring eyes and switching tails.

Mills College endowment fund will be boosted by the sale of the chubby kittens. Orders are being placed with Mrs. Potter far in advance of the holiday season. A black cat booth, contributed by Mrs. Potter, will be a feature of the Mills Club fête, which is announced for November in the Municipal Auditorium as a benefit to the endowment fund.

Material is needed by Mrs. Potter, who has conceived that even cats may have a part in an educational program. She has placed posters in the dormitories at Mills College asking the young women to contribute hosiery of any texture or color to her benefit industry. She will be glad to receive donations from anyone.

An impromptu fire sale was staged this week by students living in College hall on the Mills College campus, after it had been reported that the building had been threatened from the conflagration in the neighborhood. The endowment fund was $50 the richer by reason of the auction of trinkets, bric-a-brac, books, candles, stationery, etc., which the girls donated from their rooms. Miss Margaret Mills Noe of Los Angeles and Miss Elizabeth Trowbridge of Fresno acted as auctioneers.

Group 7 of Charter

Y.M.C.A. Factors on Toes for Big Membership Drive Monday

Bill Stinger takes two members, "Wild Bill" Day and "Dead-Eye" McDonough

The Oakland Y. M. C. A. membership drive opens Monday morning.

The forces of the campaign have been divided into two sides to be known as the Tankers and Grangers, under the leadership of "Coyote" Bob Robertson and "Ruck" Mac Lafferty. "Silver Bill" (Nat Friend) will act as sheriff and will keep everybody in order. The various Out-Fits taking part in the Round-Up and their foremen are as follows:

Dagle Pass Outfit, "Cheyenne Harvey" Lyon; Death Valley Outfit, "Doc Clark"; Broken Bow Outfit, "Sure Shot George" Preston; Dry Lake Outfit, "Cactus Colyar" Dead Man's Gulch; "Dead-Eye McDonough"; Horse Shoe Canyon, "Horse Power"; Evans Whitehall Ranch, "Allen"; Carls White Green Brace Gulch; "Wild Bill" Day; Mad Mule Mine, "Loleful Dous" Evey; 101 Ranch, "Silk Hat Harry" Belleville. A preliminary "Pow-wow" was held Friday evening. All captains were present with their men. Joe Calne, president of the Chamber of Commerce Dr. Chas. Kloss, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church, and Bill Gillander, the new general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., spoke.

MUNICIPAL BAND
TO GIVE CONCERT
AT SAN QUENTINAnnual Event Will Close Most Successful Season for Organization.

The entire municipal band will be away to San Quentin on Sunday, October 16.

Officials at the city hall admit that the band is about to close one of the most successful summer seasons in its career, furnishing a brand of music which has been ranked with the best in the land, but the park department holds that it must go to the prison just the same.

The event at San Quentin is an annual one, appreciated alike by the officials, bandmen and prisoners. The municipal band always winds up its season by a free concert to the prisoners, and always receives an enthusiastic applause, more enthusiastic than that given by ordinary folk who can hear band concerts or phonograph records every day. Members of the park board will, as usual, go to the prison as guests of the warden.

Team of Employees
Confers Third Degree

An interesting ceremony took place last night when Robert E. Capwell, son of H. C. Capwell, prominent Oakland business man, was given the degree of master mason by a team composed of employees in the H. C. Capwell company. The degree was conferred in Live Oak Lodge, No. 81, F. & A. M.

Members of the Capwell organization who participated in the ceremony were H. C. Capwell, George R. Bell, C. C. Holmes, W. A. Rogers, Henry P. Kuttner, Walter J. Lewis, Charles P. Butler, John A. Lindsay, Maurice K. Long, George L. Chaffey, John F. Lottner and George Amodeo. Major Fred Seydell, brother-in-law of the young man, also participated in the ceremony.

Breaking The Shackles of Time

LOCKS are as much a matter of course as suspenders or sausages. But it took energy and initiative to get the first clock on the kitchen shelf and start it going. The Yankee pack peddler was sole distributor and transporter. His lean, lanky, loose-jointed legs set the limits for most distribution problems in those days.

Modern transportation with progressive sales methods—and advertising—have broken the shackles of time. They make a quick job of what used to take years. Through advertising, many an article has been introduced simultaneously in stores all over the country.

This newspaper does you a two-fold service. It not only brings you news of the world, but also news of what to buy, where to buy and how to buy.

The advertisements are news columns of merchants and manufacturers who have important stories to tell you.

Take advantage of them. Read the latest news of good things to be had—and where to get them.
